Il corpo delle donne (Le polene) (Italian Edition) Anita Johnston

Sono molte le donne che lottano quotidianamente con il proprio peso. Il corpo diventa per loro un territorio estraneo, dominato dal desiderio di modellare il proprio aspetto secondo l'ideale maschile e l'incapacità di accettare se stesse, un campo di battaglia dove il cibo è il principale nemico. Per la psicologa Anita Johnston il disturbo alimentare non è altro che una strategia per evitare di confrontarsi con le paure e i sentimenti profondi: «Dovremmo chiederci di cosa realmente siamo affamate, quali sono i desideri negati o nascosti». Con l'aiuto di fiabe, leggende e storie tratte dalla cultura popolare, l'autrice ci conduce in un viaggio che è rivelatore, sorprendente, pieno di spunti di riflessione: dal rapporto madre-figlia alla scoperta della sessualità, dall'importanza dell'intelligenza intuitiva fino alla capacità di non temere il giudizio di coloro che amiamo o delle convenzioni sociali. Un libro che vale più di mille diete, perché va dritto al cuore della questione: per anni le donne sono state costrette ad assomigliare a un modello costruito da uomini, e di questo modello sono rimaste prigioniere rischiando di perdere la loro vera identità.
