Anni senza luce (Italian Edition) Anna Pulizzi

“La guerra ti arriva addosso come un cane rabbioso anche se provi a scansarla” afferma Cecile in una Parigi liberata, mentre il vortice del secondo conflitto mondiale cede il posto ad un mondo nuovo.

Oltre a lei, nell'Europa travolta dalla catastrofe, altri personaggi hanno compiuto scelte dettate dall'insicurezza o dal coraggio, dalla fede in un'idea o dall'interesse personale: un malvivente parigino, un giornalista inglese, un pilota tedesco ed una sua amica molto particolare, un ufficiale nazista, un'operaia italiana, una coppia di fidanzati polacchi, un giovane soldato sovietico.

Persone le cui strade si incrociano attraverso il gioco del caso, nel dramma che si compie dall'Atlantico a Stalingrado e dal mare del Nord al deserto libico, in una ricostruzione storica accurata.

In questa incalzante somma di odissee personali, nemmeno gli incorrotti emergono indenni dagli anni senza luce che hanno attraversato. La guerra, il cane rabbioso che non han potuto scansare, lascerà cicatrici profonde anche sul loro domani.
