Contra los ídolos posmodernos (Biblioteca Herder) (Spanish Edition) Pierangelo Sequeri

«En un mundo que no dispone del testimonio del humanismo cristológico de Dios, el politeísmo de los dioses racistas y corporativos ocupa la escena.»

En este libro, casi en forma de «manifiesto», Sequeri analiza las idolatrías de la sociedad posmoderna que han inducido su degradación antropológica. La sociedad de consumo y la cultura del espectáculo se erigen sobre cuatro ídolos «mentales»: la eterna juventud, el crecimiento económico y el dinero fácil, el totalitarismo de la comunicación y la irreligión de la secularización. Estas figuras evocan objetos y hechos que nada tienen en sí de demoníaco o de idolátrico. Y en eso reside la gravedad de la insidia: la idolatría de mayor éxito se afianza gracias a la exaltación de lo que promete ser una realización fácil del deseo colectivo.

Sequeri no se limita a criticar estos ídolos, sino que trata de imaginar los movimientos necesarios para contrarrestarlos: «Nosotros, pueblos cristianos de Occidente, hemos merecido las consecuencias de esta recaída en el paganismo. Pero podemos desenmascarar la estupidez de la cultura que pretende representarnos, y abrir mil lugares de liberación [...] El ídolo de lo posmoderno no nos representa.»
