If you thought university lecturers and embassy translators are no bedfellows to erotica, you may be in for a surprise. The stories in this collection are by Miodrag Kojadinovi?, who's pursued both of these professions for years, but has also spent time as a sauna and a swimming pool attendant and for two years was officially registered as a farmer. The stories cover a range of situations — sexual and otherwise — and geographical locales. From the Pacific coast of the Americas in our times to Switzerland in the 1990s, from Serbia in the 1980s to Paris at the end of last century and then all the way to a fictitious Mediaeval kingdom ruled by a queen in an undefined era, they are all there.
