"Christian" It's who you are, not what you are. It's not an occupation, but a way of life. To be Christ-like is not a badge of convenience, but a way of life. It is OK if you fail, but it is not OK to deceive yourself. Too often we tell ourselves we are OK because of what we do, rather than who we are. The Apostle Paul stated, "I am what I am." Paul was saying that everything was centered upon who he was; to walk in the Spirit is to become one with Him. And so, it becomes your choice. Each day you must choose. To be happy, sad, angry, content, in love with life or mad at the world. Whatever adjective you use to describe the moment you are in, you are in control. Too often we complain of our lot in life as if it is someone else's fault. He said that "all things work together for good," because he knew we had the ability to choose. Quit complaining about life and take control of your own happiness. Make Him real---for just one more soul. It's your choice, you choose.
