The New Creation

Charles T. Russell

The New Creation Charles T. Russell

Examines over 2300 Scriptures from the Old and New Testaments.

The Christian Church of the Gospel Age is spoken of in Scripture as the new creation specifically mentioned as "new creatures in Christ" (2 Cor. 5:17). The laws, duties, privileges and responsibilities of God's new creation are defined in Scripture and are designed for their instruction, edification, blessing and comfort.

The New Creation discusses at length the obligation placed on Christians. These obligations do not detract from but enhance Christian growth when properly fulfilled. This is important in order that Christians may achieve a more complete spirit of discipleship to Christ.

The New Creation examines:

- How God calls His people.
- The doctrine of predestination.
- The baptism of the new creation.
- The Passover of the new creation
- The responsibilities of marriage, parental and other earthly obligations
- The organization of the new creation

The New Creation makes the New Testament instruction by Jesus and the Apostles come alive with meaning. As the Temple of the Living God, each Christian is to honor, praise and glorify God. Anything less is not living up to our privilege of walking with the Master. This exhaustive volume is required reading for the serious Bible student.
