Have you ever wanted to escape the daily grind and set out on an adventure of a life time? That's what Melanie did when, hitting rock bottom after the death of her soul mate, she quit her job, sold her house and set out across the United States looking for love.

Capturing the ups, downs and hilarious moments of internet dating and travelling alone in a foreign land, Melanie makes you laugh and cry as she shares her hopes, fears and most humiliating moments on a journey that changes her life.

Part travelogue, part romp and part how-to guide, Melanie instructs as well as inspires providing a clear formula to achieve positive change that anyone can follow.

By turns joyful and melancholy this wise and funny author will inspire and uplift you in this honest, humorous and beautifully written memoir.
