[Siren Classic: Erotic Romantic Suspense] Human trafficking. One of the most prolific and profitable businesses in the world and growing every day. But that's only in third world countries, right? Isabella Donnelley finds out the answer the hard way--through personal experience--when she is drugged at a friend's house and transported from Denver, Colorado, to Stoney Creek, Virginia, to be sold to a crime boss as a sex slave. She puts her life in the hands of a man she finds intensely attractive but also distrusts. Now she must rely on him to keep her safe from her pursuing abductors--and maybe from him, too. Wyatt Bowman, former-cop-turned-detective, is assigned to the Task Force of Human Trafficking. Sparks fly when a young and beautiful woman bursts into his house. But what neither one of them counted on was how much their lives would change. ** A Siren Erotic Romance
