Competition Law of the EC and UK Mark Furse

This book provides a clear and well-structured approach to competition law as it operates in the UK, whilst including the law of the EC and the direct impact this has on UK law. This fourth edition however highlights the separation of the two systems as the new Enterprise Act 2002 is adopted by the UK. Changes to the EC system such as the abandonment of the Vertical Exclusions order and the modernisation programme and the changes this necessitates are also fully considered.
