He's Got the Whole World in His Hands Traditional

A childhood favorite in book-and-song format.

Here is a traditional American spiritual presented in board book form, with a push button for musical fun. The song was first published in a hymnal in 1927, although its origins date back much farther. It has been recorded by numerous musicians over the years and has appeared in a number of movies as well.

The lyrics are accompanied by bright illustrations of children of all races across the world. And the sound chip plays the melody that so many young children learn to sing. This combination is sure to be a hit in households and classrooms across the country. Ages 2-5.
