Apocalypse (Campi di Parole) (Italian Edition) Giovanni Guilla

Un uomo mite e solitario, analista della più grande e discussa agenzia di intelligence del mondo, la cui fragile tranquillità viene scombinata da un evento all'apparenza insignificante.

Due donne forti e risolte che ne risvegliano la voglia di vivere e di lasciarsi trasportare al di fuori dell'inconsistente felicità del suo isolamento dal mondo.

Al centro un'organizzazione criminale, di insospettabile natura, che trama sullo scacchiere internazionale per pilotare gli eventi, a vantaggio di pochi politici ed affaristi senza scrupoli.

Frank Dunbar diventa, suo malgrado, protagonista e vittima di una partita iniziata da tempo e mai risolta, arrivando a scovare il bandolo della matassa in un'intricata vicenda e riuscendo nella difficile impresa di portare allo scoperto quasi tutti i giocatori, mentre quegli stessi eventi lo conducono ad affrontare nuovamente a viso aperto la sua vita, sconvolta anni prima da un tragico destino.
