This Shenzhen shopping 2015 edition is the fourth revision of Shopping in Shenzhen, first released in 2008 and revised in 2010. This edition has been redesigned so that the information is more concise and comprehensive. The sightseeing section has been augmented, with the addition of Eastern Shenzhen and various activities. It also includes a new Transportation section, with information on ferries, trains, metro and border crossings. Like we did with the #1 best-seller Shenzhen guide The Shenzhen Insider's Guide, Shopping in Shenzhen was written and compiled by dozens of writers. Its data was gathered by both expatriates and local Chinese who conducted over a hundred interviews. Shopping in Shenzhen has insightful information, maps, directions and addresses in both English and Chinese. Shopping in Shenzhen will not only bring you to expatriates' preferred shopping places, but also to places foreigners never dare to go. Rest assured, not that it's dangerous, but rather because of the language barrier; little English is spoken there, if any at all. Want to stay overnight in Shenzhen? Hotels in Shenzhen will give you good advice. It not only includes price guides, directions in English and Chinese district by district, but also reviews by professional travel writers, with detailed hotel information and practical tips. If you argue that life is not only about shopping, eating and sleeping, we have what you need: Sightseeing in Shenzhen will take you from your room to Shenzhen's theme parks, art centers, museums and temples, or simply to a peaceful family promenade in one of the numerous Shenzhen's parks.
