A Passion for Trains: The Railroad Photography of Richard Steinheimer Richard Steinheimer, Jeff Brouws

A tribute to the most revered railroad photographer of our time.

To the true rail fan, Richard Steinheimer is an authentic hero, the best of the best. This, the first full-length celebration of his work, presents 160 of his duotone images, with an introduction by Jeff Brouws.

A pioneer in train photography, Steinheimer lived through and documented the railroad's heyday and its decline. He is one of very few photographers who appreciate the aesthetics of all locomotives, from steam engines to the latest diesel-powered behemoths. He has a particular fondness for the landscape of the American West, and many of his images situate trains in the larger geography and culture of the time. Known for taking pictures at night, in bad weather, and from risky perches on top of moving train platforms, Steinheimer has an enormous creativity and productivity. 160 duotone photographs

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this A Passion for Trains: The Railroad Photography of Richard Steinheimer can make you
