A Thorny Path Hesba Stretton

The title, "A Thorny Path," was title taken from an old German hymn. Chance meetings, charitable deeds and hardships on London's streets combine into a heartwarming story. We follow a life weary Hagar that made a bad decision because of her extreme circumstances, a woman in whom blossomed spiritual renewal, and a person that modeled the love of Christ. "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends"-John 15:13. This edition has 9 illustrations.
