RAA is an Illustrated Children's Book Company. Our goal is to create a book company for parents in modern families. Modern families need traditional childrens books that they can better identify with. Books with single parents, or same sex relationships, and mixed race. We do not necessarily emphases these relationships in these books but rather place these relationships as "normal" in traditional children's stories and other situations which the same things as normal children's books. This book is for a child with a single mother
