The Inner Life - volume II Webster Leadbeater Charles

Charles Webster Leadbeater is regarded as one of the most important of the twentieth century's writers on Theosophy. A competent seer and teacher, the series of lectures which comprise this book were given to students in the early 1900s, during evening 'talks' at the Theosophical Headquarters at Adyar in India. 'The Inner Life' considers a wide range of topics, from Life After Death to Nature Spirits, and from Reincarnation through Psychic Powers to Work on the Astral Plane. In Volume II, Leadbeater's descriptions expand and elaborate on the ancient tradition that has been a heritage of Humankind since before the dawn of history - a tradition that is now being verified by scientific data from both quantum- and bio-physics. A fascinating compendium of esoteric knowledge that no student of the occult should be without.
