Some people are dreamers, some are doers. When the two combine, wonderful things can and do happen. Following a dream can be a hard task, especially when life itself seems to be against you. This is a true story. The names of some individuals have been changed at their request, however, all characters in the book are real. This is a true account of how a dream came true. The search for a dream home brought moments of sheer delight, excitement, amazement and laughter into the lives of a Lancashire family. The journey took them into the hills and mountains of inland Valencia, a land of orange, lemon and almond groves, wild cats and preying mantis, bull runs and barn owls. Life seemed idyllic, but could they make it theirs? One thing was certain, their lives would never be the same. Join them on their quest for a new life. For those in similar circumstances be encouraged. Dreams can come true... if you let them!
